

July 15 in the hotel "Villa Reta" of Grigoleti coastal village held the round table for Guria coastal settlements businessmen, Local Authority representatives and LIC management. On the theme "Perspectives of coastal development" spoke Professor Mr. Shukri Tavartkiladze. Director of project "Cooperation for the sustainable development of Guria coastal zone" Mr. Amiran Gigineishvili represented the coastal community need assessment. Participants made the identification of local problems.

The project "Cooperation for the sustainable development of Guria coastal zone" is financed in framework of Small Grants Program is supported by the project: "Regional and Local Development in Georgia" (RLD), which is implemented by United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and funded by Swiss Cooperation Office for the South Caucasus (SCO) and Austrian Development Cooperation (ADC).

---